Defendant Luke Brugnara has filed a "supplement" to his request for an order requiring the Bureau of Prisons to return him to San Francisco pending resolution of his habeas corpus petition. The Court is also in receipt of a letter from Vickie Brugnara, Brugnara's mother, regarding Brugnara's transfer to USP Beaumont. For the benefit of the parties, that letter is included below. As explained in an order dated June 22, 2018, however, the district court does not have jurisdiction to select where Brugnara's sentence will be served. That decision remains within the province of the BOP. See United States v. Ceballos, 671 F.3d 852, 855 (9th Cir. 2011) (citation omitted).

WILLIAM ALSUP
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

June 27, 2018

To Judge Alsop,

I am writing to you because my son, Luke Brugnara, has been transferred yet again, to another prison. I believe the 10th transfer since you sentenced him. This time he is in USP Beaumont Fed. Prison in Texas - high security.

Luke was diagnosed with bi-polar I disorder, along with personality disorders when he was in your court. I don't know if you ever read the reports but they are still available through Dr. John Shields (415)434-4037 and Dr. Marc Patterson (650) 350-1998.

This is a huge miscarriage of justice. Luke is mentally ill and needs psychiatric help. He is getting worse. He cannot help himself. I am very worried for his safety at Beaumont. He is not a violent person and has never been arrested for a violent crime. Why is he in high security?

I would appreciate anything you could do to help. Getting psychiatric treatment for Luke, and transferring him out of high security would be a great help.

I would be most grateful for anything at all you could do to help.

Sincerely, Vickie Brugnara
